TRACING MURDER TO GRILL

BACK TO LIFE TO TELL OF ASSAILANTS

HE OWNS AN ISLAND IN BRITISH WATERS

Killed an Old Man Because He Loved a Young Girl.

Thomas Cook Says Sheriff has the Right Men--Pembroke Again Behind the Bars.

HEALDSBURG, Cal., July 28.—At 10 o'clock this morning the hearing of A. J. Grill, charged with the murder of Winton F. Pierce began in Justice Provin's court in this city. The accused is charged with having murdered Pierce with a shotgun last Sunday evening.

LOVED THE GIRL.
Grill is said to have been infatuated with May Pierce, the 14 year old daughter of the victim. The first witnesses called were W. S. Bennet, who resides about 150 yards south of the scene of the murder and Lon Gilman, of Healdsburg.

Both testified to having seen May Pierce drive up to her father's home at seven o'clock Sunday evening. They both saw the elder Pierce and Grill return from a hunting trip, each carrying a gun.

HEARD A SHOT.
At 9 o'clock they heard a shot fired in the house but thought nothing of the occurrence. Fifteen minutes later a rig departed but as it was dark they were unable to distinguish those in it. When Bennet went to work the next morning, he missed the elder Pierce and his suspicions were aroused. He and H. S. Grill, then hurried to the Pierce home and failing to gain any response to their repeated knocking, broke in the door and discovered the lifeless body of Pierce.

RETURNED TO RANCH.
Mrs. Alice Bennet and H. S. Grill, also testified to having heard the shot fired and the clatter of a buggy. Geo. Jacobs, for whom Grill was working was called on the stand, and said the accused returned to his ranch at midnight.

The next morning he received a telephonic communication to send Grill to the Pierce home in Alexander Valley.

He complied with the request and Grill dashed off on horseback. Roy Reed also an employee on the Jacobs place, related that Grill went to work at 5 o'clock Monday morning, and later in the morning, when he informed the accused that old man Pierce had been murdered, Grill replied casually that he bet the old man had killed himself.

THE ARREST.
Constable E. T. Gussler of Geyersville, who arrested the accused, said that Grill broke down and cried when placed under arrest and stoutly protested his innocence.

Nellie Phillips, clerking in a local store, testified that Grill and the Pierce girl purchased $11 worth of merchandise last Saturday night, and had the bill charged to Grill. On Monday morning, May again visited the store and paid $3.25 for a pair of shoes. H. Bernsdorf, a local cigar dealer, claims that he sold to the murdered man a twenty-five-cent cigar, and changed a $20 gold piece for him. He handed Pierce three $5 gold pieces, and the remainder in silver. May Pierce will be sworn this afternoon.

After battling with death for five days, with his brain gaping through his scalp in several places, and his eye gouged out, Thomas Cook recovered consciousness sufficiently last night to tell his doctors that there were three men engaged in the assault upon him, and that John Schneider and George Blaker were two of them, but in his weakened condition he could not then remember the name of the third man. This information was communicated to Sheriff Barnett early this morning by Dr. J. H. Callen, and without waiting for further developments, Sheriff Barnett has had Percy Pembroke again arrested, and it is hoped that before nightfall Cook will be able to tell the details of his terrible experience.

PEMBROKE ARRESTED.
From the stories of people in the neighborhood, it is known that Pembroke was with Schneider and Blaker up to a short time prior to the time of the commission of the crime, and Sheriff Barnett took him into custody several days ago, but after holding him in jail all day, and giving him a severe sweating, he gave him his liberty, as he seemingly told a straight story. He contradicted the statement of Schneider in regard to his wearing a cap on the night in question, and admitted being with both of them, but left them, and says that he went home. It is evidently the belief of the Sheriff, however, that Pembroke is the man, for before he was out of bed this morning the hand of the law had again closed upon him, and a word from Cook may place him behind the bars forever.

ANOTHER SUSPECT.
The efforts of the Sheriff's office, however, have not been stayed, and it is now thought that Barnett is looking for James Crowhurst, who is another of the same gang, and one of the ring leaders. He has been implicated with both Schneider and Blaker before this in many questionable affairs, and it may be that he may prove to be the third man, and this being the case the Sheriff wants him where he can lay his hand upon him. He has been around Fruitvale and has been seen there daily, and it is not believed that there will be any great difficulty in again taking him into custody. Crowhurst was the first one to be arrested for the offense, but he also was given his liberty, after being held a day or so, as there was nothing in the way of evidence against him at that time that warranted the Sheriff in holding him.

SHERIFF RETICENT.
Sheriff Barnett is very reticent in talking about the matter this morning, as he has not yet been allowed to see the injured man, the doctors fearing that it may excite Cook too much. He is waiting impatiently to get to the bedside of the patient, with before Acting Police Judge Geary and her trial was set down for August 18. She demanded a jury trial.

THE GOLD PIECE.
The finding of the $10 gold piece in Schneider's mattress yesterday by Matron White has taken on added importance now, and will go along with the many other circumstances to connect him with the assault on Cook, who it is feared may yet die, as several inches of bone has been removed from his head, making his injuries of a very serious character. The money, it is believed without question, is a part of the money stolen from Cook Saturday night. The money with the purse found in Schneider's cell were taken to the Schneider home at Fruitvale and shown by Deputy Sheriff Kelly to Mrs. Schneider, who first said, "No, that is not Johnnie's purse," but when Kelly opened it disclosing the gold, she quickly answered "Yes, it is." Later in the day Schneider's father asked Sheriff Barnett for the purse and the money.

disse last Saturday night, and had the bill charged to Grill. On Monday morning, May again visited the store and paid $3.25 for a pair of shoes. H. Bernsdorf, a local cigar dealer, claims that he sold to the murdered man a twenty-five-cent cigar, and changed a $20 gold piece for him. He handed Pierce three $5 gold pieces, and the remainder in silver. May Pierce will be sworn this afternoon.

WAS SAVED FROM ASSASSINATION
CONSTANTINOPLE, July 28.—In reply to a Mussulman address of loyalty and gratification at his escape from assassination by a bomb thrown by an unknown person at the Temple of Zerkia ceremonies on Friday last, the Sultan says that divine Providence on that occasion was God's reward to him for constant endeavors to promote the peace and happiness of his people. The only incident which deeply affected him was the fact that so many of his dear, devoted soldiers and well-beloved people were killed or injured.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.
Maria Regentes, who is accused of breaking a stick over the head of Jose Purdala, who informed her that the rent of the house she was living in had been raised, pleaded not guilty this morning.

W. L. D. CARY, OWNER OF THE CALF OF MAN.
Oakland Man Has Just Returned From Viewing His Unique Possession.

NEW YORK, July 28.—An interesting passenger on the steamship Teutonic yesterday was W. L. D. Cary, of Oakland, Cal., millionaire, who enjoys the distinction of being the sole proprietor and ruler of an island in British waters on which he is exempt from paying taxes, either to Great Britain or any other country.

Mr. Cary's unique possession is the Calf of Man, located about 500 yards south of the Isle of Man. It is five miles in circumference and contains about 900 acres, 140 of which are in a high state of cultivation. The population is about forty, one of Mr. Cary's tenants is an American missionary. The island came into Mr. Cary's possession by inheritance, having been given to one of his remote ancestors by a former ruler of Great Britain for services performed for the crown. Mr. Cary's father was the last owner of it and it was during his lifetime that the taxation of the island was abolished. Mr. Cary Sr., protested against paying taxes, having discovered that the original deed of gift exempted it. The matter was taken up by Parliament and Mr. Cary's position sustained.

On the little possession the British government years ago erected two lighthouses. During his recent visit Mr. Cary purchased the lighthouses to make his title clear to everything on the island and he now maintains them at his own expense. Mr. Cary, who is a naturalized citizen of the United States, says that he saw nothing while he was abroad to make him regret his taking the oath of allegiance to this government.

JOHANN HOCH.

Puts Up Money Necessary for Appeal and Stays the Hand of the Hangman.

CHICAGO, July 28.—A woman with money effectually intervened today between "Bluebeard" Johann Hoch and the hangman.

Almost on the steps of the scaffold, the combination of femininity and finance that has been potent throughout the career of the alleged bigamist and wife murderer developed for him a longer lease of life.

The woman who went to his rescue is said to be wealthy and professed to have become interested in the case from humanitarian motives only. She enlisted the aid of Dr. Liston H. Montgomery, one of the most prominent physicians in the city.

THE NEGOTIATIONS.
Dr. Montgomery acted as her intermediary in the negotiations. At 2 a. m. Jailer Whitman was aroused from sleep to answer the telephone. Some person who refused to give his name at the time announced that he would appear at the jail at 10 a. m. prepared to furnish money, the lack of which, it had been alleged, prevented Hoch from completing the legal record required by the Illinois Supreme Court in case of all appeals.

THE RECORD.
The record will cost $1,100. Hoch had $100 and a conditional promise of $400 promised. Because no name was given over the telephone, Jailer Whitman attached little importance to the notification. But today at the hour named, Dr. Montgomery, with Mrs. Wilson, appeared at the jail. Their talk with Whitman convinced him they were in earnest, and steps were at once taken for a new appeal to the Governor.

HOCH GAVE UP HOPE.
Mrs. Wilson said she stood ready to advance a portion of the money necessary to enable Hoch to carry his case to the Supreme Court, and that three persons had agreed to make up a part of the sum necessary. Mrs. Wilson desired to save the man, and if possible, appeal to the Governor herself. She was assured by the

SAFE ROBBERS NEARLY WRECK TRAIN

SALINAS, Cal., July 28.—A daring burglary, the narrow escape of an overland train from wreck, and the arrest of two desperate tramps caused a sensation here this morning.

Upon the arrival of section two of the overland train, the crew reported having seen an iron safe at a crossing near the depot, in dangerous proximity to the track.

Investigation revealed the fact that robbers had stolen a heavy truck, crowbar and hammer and chisel from a railroad tool-house, and then proceeded to the Salinas Steam Laundry, broke it open, took out the safe, which was carried on the truck about 600 feet and dumped into a shallow gulch.

The safe was then broken open and robbed of $200. No papers or checks were taken. The safe was left within two feet of the track, and when the first section of the train passed was not seen.

Had there been a heavy jar, the safe would have fallen on the track, causing the wreck of the second section.

The Sheriff's office this morning located two rough looking men loitering near the safe, and after considerable resistance on the part of the men, arrested them.

The men claim to be tramps, but are believed to be ex-convicts. They refuse to give their names.

SCHOOL TO OPEN ON AUGUST 14

Superintendent of Schools McClymonds announced this morning that schools will open on Monday, August 14. It is anticipated that there will be a large attendance.

NO RACING ON DELMAR TRACK TODAY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 28.—In a statement made by Samuel W. Adler, one of the stockholders of the Delmar Jockey Club, today, announced that there would be no racing at the Delmar track this afternoon.

This decision was reached after a conference of the officials of the Jockey Club and their attorneys.

Mr. Adler said that the track would be temporarily closed, pending the decision of the Supreme Court on the writ of prohibition granted by Justice Marshall of the Supreme Court, which prevents the county from interfering in any way with St. Louis police officials who have been conducting the raids on the track.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—George T. Moore, physiologist, and sigologist of the Department of Agriculture, today tendered his resignation to Secretary Wilson and it has been accepted. PLANS OF ZIONIST
CONGRESSProposed Jewish Colony in East Africa is Discussed.

BASLE, Switzerland, July 28.—The reports that rioting occurred at yesterday's session of the Zionist Congress are incorrect. This morning, however, while the delegates were arriving in the hall considerable scuffling occurred in the hallways and stairways; this caused a scene of angry gesticulation and shouting. Blows were exchanged and the police interfered and cleared the stairways of the disorderly element.

The congress held a lively session over the special order of the day, the establishment of a Zionist colony in East Africa. Delegate Greenberg reported the details of the result of the expedition to inspect the land offered for colonization by the British government. Mr. Greenberg prepared a vote of thanks to the British government. I. Zangwill urged the acceptance of the British proposition, providing the unhealthy location on the plateau of Gush Nigshu (comprising five thousand square miles) be replaced or extended to a more favorable location.

Sir Francis Montefiore warmly contended for Palestine as a more proper site for colonization.

Owing to the interest aroused in the colonization over a hundred or more delegates have requested to be heard. The organization committee sought to restrict the debate to four orators. A. Zytzkof of Paris, introduced a resolution providing for an unlimited debate which was defeated by a large majority. Thereupon a small group began a noisy demonstration compelling President Nordau to close the session amidst a scene of general agitation.

MATTERS BEFORE
PROBATE COURT

Petition for the approval of her final accounting of her administration of the estate of her late husband, John P. Rich, was filed this morning by Katherine Cook Rich, who shows that the estate amounts to about $337 and which she asks to have distributed to her and the two children of deceased. One of the children being hers while the other is a child of the deceased by a former wife.

Napoleon Alexander has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Paul Maisonneuve who died at Fruitvale on April 21st last.

An accounting filed today by the Union Trust Company of San Francisco in the matter of the estate of Nelda and Kathryn King heirs of the late Thomas Varney of Livermore shows that their estate now amounts to $578 remaining in the hands of the trustee. Their claims against the estate of the late Thomas Varney of Livermore were compromised for $10,000 which they shared between them.

Caroline Erickson was granted letters of administration on the estate of the late Andrew Erickson by Judge Waste today.

The final account of Eliza Welcker as executrix of the estate of the late Mendel Welcker of Berkeley was filed today and the entire estate valued as $59,000. The property consisted of her share in an appraisement of the estate some time ago there was a disagreement among the appraisers of the shares and the estate was valued at $50,000 and while two of them valued the estate at $60,000 Frank H. Powers of San Francisco placed a value of $250,000 on it. The main item over which they disagreed was a piece of land in Stockton known as the Terminal Tract being a piece of waterfront property which Eliza believed to be of great value. The estate also consists of a large amount of other realty some of which is located at Berkeley.

A decree of final distribution in the matter of the estate of John McRae, deceased, was made by Judge Waste this morning. The property consisted of two promissory notes, one of $3,500 and another of $2,000 which have been distributed to Annie and Donald McRae, mother and son in equal shares.

By an order of court this morning S. C. Diavilla, as guardian of the persons and estate of Lena and Philomena Silva, was allowed to sign for his wards the compromise entered into among the heirs of the late Frank Silva of Pleasanton, who died leaving an estate valued at $50,000 and practically disinheriting Mary E. Silveira, one of his daughters who proposed to make a contest of the will when the other children and the widow agreed to allow her to share equally in the estate if she would withdraw the contest. In order to make it binding on the two minor children Diavilla had to get the permission of the court to sign the compromise for them.

Mary E. Silveira gained the displeasure of her father by her animosity to his proposed marriage to his niece, a beautiful girl whom he took to live at his home with him and whom he afterwards discovered the law would not allow him to marry even though he disregarded the proprieties of his daughter to whom he was allied in his will a barren woman incapable of marriage.

FRUITMEN WIN FROM BAY
CITIES COJudge Says Corporation Cannot Divert the Waters of the Coyote River.

SAN JOSE, July 28.—Judge Rhodes today handed down his opinion in the case of the Fruitmen's Association against the Bay Cities Water Company, which was a suit to restrain the corporation from diverting the waters of the Coyote River at or above the lower end of the river.

He holds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree perpetually enjoining and restraining the defendants and its officers, agents and employees from obstructing, arresting or diverting at, or above the lower gorge of the river, (except for the reasonable use there on the lands of the company in the exercise of its riparian rights), any of the waters of the Coyote River, which except for such diversion, would flow on the surface of the bed of the river through the gorge, or would flow or percolate through the gorge underneath the surface thereof, and that plaintiff recover his costs against the defendant.

Charles Miller, plaintiff, represented all those fruit-growers and ranchers whose lands lie north of the lower gorge and south of the bay. It was contended that if the defendants were not restrained from diverting the water, the whole of the eastern portion of the valley would be deprived of its essential supply of water for irrigation purposes, and Judge Rhodes so holds.

QUESTIONDEPUTY CORONER HAS AN EX-

IN THE MORNING.

An effort was made to burglarize the apartments of Deputy Coroner Van Vranken, at 973 Thirteenth street, at an early hour this morning. The Deputy Coroner was awakened by hearing some one walking about the house. He at first thought it was his mother-in-law, but afterward discovered that it was a stranger man. He made an effort to capture the burglar, but was unsuccessful. The early morning intruder on finding that he was discovered made his escape through an open window which he had entered. Van Vranken was not able to give a good description of the burglar to the police.

POLICE TOLD OF HIS RECORD

BERKELEY, July 28.—The Berkeley police this afternoon received word from Cambridge, Massachusetts, to the effect that Sydney Thornton, a clever confidence man, who stole a camera and outfit valued at $200 from James T. Pollock, a local photographer, is wanted there for a similar crime. Thornton secured a place with an undertaking establishment of Cambridge and swindled his employer out of $300 in cash. He is about twenty-six years old and a great swindler. He has traveled much and is prepossessing. He is often known as John Lake, and if he is still in this State he has probably assumed another alias. His description has been sent broadcast.

RESIGNS BECAUSE OF CRITICISM

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The resignation of Mr. Moore and its immediate acceptance were announced in a statement issued by the Department today. Dr. Moore says he resigns because of criticism against him. He says he did not wish to embarrass the Department.

INCINERATING COMPANY AND SCAVENGERS MAY COME TOGETHER.

Mayor Mott and the special committee on garbage from the City Council have finally determined on a plan of action in settling the garbage question which it is thought will be agreeable to all parties concerned.

The proposal now is to allow the Pacific Incinerating Company to negotiate with the scavengers in the matter of collection of the garbage. The city will not have a hand in regulating the price to be paid the scavengers. All of the collecting of refuse will, however, be under the direction of the Board of Health. The Pacific Incinerating Company under the new arrangement will not be relieved of any responsibility it assumed under the contract entered into with the city a year ago.

MUTUAL MAKES ANSWER

NEW YORK, July 28.—The policy holders of the Mutual Reserve Insurance Co. have received a statement from the directors of the company, which is apparently a public reply to the examination by the New York State Insurance department, which was printed today.

Chief Examiner Vanderpoel in his report, charged the Mutual Reserve Company with concealment of judgments against the company amounting to $182,767, exaggeration of its surplus by over $300,000 and a fixed policy of delay in settling claims.

A statement issued by the company today declares that there is not a single fact to support the allegations of the insurance department that payments are delayed by the company, and adds a table to show that gross assets exceed gross liabilities by $74,974 more than did the company's statement of December 1, 1904.

The report says that from 1901 to 1904 the company paid in death claims $7,707,100.

GERMANY FORCING FRANCEThey Cannot Agree on Moroccan and Other Questions.

PARIS, July 28.—France's relations with Germany are again showing signs of strain, owing to the inability of Premier Rouvier and Ambassador Radolin to conclude a definite program for the Moroccan conference.

The agreement of July 8 contemplated a joint program, but the arrangement of this program is causing renewed difficulty, particularly in connection with France's right to police the territory adjoining Algeria and supervise the maintenance of order throughout the empire.

It is the French view, that these rights follow from the agreement of July 8, whereas Germany does not wish to define the extent of French policy and financial reforms. The indecisive status of the negotiations has caused renewed apprehension on the Bourse, and the newspapers have renewed their sharp criticism of Germany's course.

The fight for the franchise of the Oakland Traction Consolidated which was before the Council last night, has brought those communities into a much closer connection, and a petition is being circulated to make Fruitvale station its railway point instead of Twenty-third avenue, and to extend its track along Fruitvale avenue to Alameda.

HIS CONDITION IS SERIOUS

Late this afternoon Sheriff Barnett had a conversation with Dr. J. H. Callen at Fruitvale relative to the condition of Thomas Cook and the probability of his being able to make a statement in regard to the identification of his assailants, and Dr. Callen held out no hope that he would be able to do so in the near future. He stated that Cook's pulse increased very much after his effort at talking last night and that he would be afraid to attempt it again at present.

"Whereas, Oakland is so situated geographically as to make its location particularly worthy of consideration, not only as the terminal, but also for the location of shops of all railroads entering the State; and

"Whereas, Newspaper reports state that the Western Pacific Railway Company is contemplating locating its shops in the State; therefore be it Resolved, That the Board of Trade, through its committee on railroads, most earnestly requests the management of the Western Pacific Railway Company to locate their shops on said road in Oakland, and the Oakland Board of Trade will do all in its power to aid in such a movement."

CONNIE FITZGERALD
GIVEN GRILLING

Connie Fitzgerald, who lately escaped a term of imprisonment at San Quentin because it was represented to Judge Waste that his health was in such a condition that he probably die if sent there, and was liberated on probation, is again in custody and was thoughtless enough of his own health to compel himself in such a manner as to again be arrested.

He was brought up before Judge Waste this morning, who said to Fitzgerald: "Since liberating you and allowing you freedom under the probation I have received a letter critical of my action in allowing such a character as you to be free. And I am now of the opinion that the criminal who was found in your case does not seem to appreciate what has been done for you, and I am afraid that this time you will have to pay the penalty for your crime. I, however, will let the matter go over for one week in which to give time to investigate your behavior."

Fitzgerald with a man by the name of Joseph Hawley was charged with burglary, being found in the mattress factory recently burned on Fourth street. Hawley pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a year at San Quentin. Fitzgerald pleaded guilty and the mercy of the court was invoked owing to the fact that he is supposed to have consumption. A few days ago he was arrested in West Oakland for being drunk and a vagrant.

WILLIAM LOWERY
PASSES AWAY

MARYSVILLE, Cal., July 28.—William A. Lowery, an old resident of this city, died today from a cancerous growth in the mouth, after a lingering illness of over four months. His funeral will take place in this city next Sunday.

SENT TO ASYLUM.
William Edwards, commonly known as the "pirate" on the water front, was committed to the Napa Insane Asylum by Judge Waste this afternoon and was taken there by Deputy Sheriff Reilly on the 4 o'clock train. His home has been an ark in the estuary, where he has lived for many years.

GOVERNOR
SAYS: "NO
PANIC"Makes Signed Statement in Regard to Yellow Fever.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 28.—"I don't regard the yellow fever situation as alarming. The usual crop of exaggerated rumors and reports exist. The State and city authorities, assisted by medical men in the service of the Federal Government, experienced in yellow fever matters, sent here for the purpose, are coping with the situation. The municipal authorities of New Orleans are exerting every effort known to medical science to stamp out the pest. No occasion for panic. I regard the action of the surrounding States in quarantining against the whole State of Louisiana as unreasonable and unjust, yielding to popular clamor, based in part upon the panicky condition always attendant upon the first approach of yellow fever."

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—An official report of twenty-six new cases and two deaths occurring from yellow fever in the preceding twenty-four hours was made to the State Health Board today, making a total of 206 cases and 44 deaths to date. Of the 26 new cases all except one are Italians, the exception is a negro living in the infected district. None of the new cases and 44 deaths to date. Of the 26 with one exception at 4222 St. Louis street, in the rear of the city, are in the area of the original infection. The majority of the cases reported are in the French Market section.

The Louisiana State Board is in session today. It will quarantine the State against New Orleans with the exception perhaps of the provinces of St. Tammany, Tangipahoe and Jefferson, contiguous to the city.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 28.—Members of the Cotton Exchange passed a resolution endorsing the demand of the Merchants' Exchange asking for a quarantine against New Orleans and other fever infected points. Mayor Williams announced that he would immediately call a special meeting of the Council. This means a quarantine will be established at once.

NARROW ESCAPE
OF BOYFalls From Scaffold Before Wheels of a Car.

Carroll Nicholson, son of Mrs. Carroll-Nicholson, the well-known soloist of the First Congregational Church, faced death in a double form last night by falling from a platform thirty feet high, near Piedmont and Montross avenues, on to the tracks of the Oakland Traction Company.

The boy's skull was fractured by the fall and one of the company's cars nearly ran over the body as he lay prostrate across the tracks.

The boy, who is twelve years old, was taken to Folsom Hospital, where Dr. Cunningham trephined the skull in an effort to save the boy's life. The outcome of the operation still in doubt.

Young Nicholson was playing about the platform, which is almost over the car tracks, late yesterday evening. He slipped and fell head foremost. His head struck the rails on an angle, to which fact he no doubt owes his life. As it was the skull was fractured above the left ear.

Had the car, which comes around the curve near the Nicholson home on Piedmont avenue, near Park way, been going at full speed, there is no power on earth which could have saved the victim of the accident from having been mangled beyond recognition.

The motorman stopped the car and summoned assistance. The boy rallied somewhat after the accident and it is thought he has a chance for his life.

EXPECT ARRESTS.
NEW YORK, July 28.—Arrests are anticipated here within a short time as the result of a seizure of cheap stogies reported by Associated Press dispatches from St. Louis. The consignment taken by government agents numbered 48,000 and bore internal revenue stamps which are alleged to have been used once and from which the cancellation marks had been washed with acid. An investigation has been in progress several months among the manufacturers in Heister and Mulberry streets and Internal Revenue Collector Anderson, a negro recently appointed for the Southern district of New York, was much concerned yesterday over a charge that the illegal shipments may have been made possible by collusion with one or more of his deputy collectors. He was unwilling to believe such a charge well founded.

"I am new here and am only beginning to learn the workings of the department," he said, "but if anything of this nature is going on I shall make it my business to find out about it."

By one of the revenue agents who has charge of the secret service and of the case, it is stated that the present investigation involves three manufacturers. The authorities have been aided by a fourth cigar-maker, whose motive is to eliminate the unfair competition occasioned by his competitors not always paying the tax. All of the manufacturers concerned are Italians.

IMPROVEMENTS AT NORTH END

CENTRAL OAKLAND CLUB TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS TO THE COUNCIL.

The Central Oakland Club met last evening at the club rooms 4906 Telegraph avenue. The new officers for the ensuing term took their seats, President, W. B. Thomas; vice-presidents, R. D. Holmes, S. N. Carr and F. E. Michel; secretary, Dr. C. A. Dukes; treasurer, C. H. Pearson.

A letter from Postmaster Dargie was read stating that the request from the club asking for a late evening collection of mail was under consideration and would be arranged for.

Mr. Mellon of Alcatraz avenue, thanked the club for their timely aid in protesting against work and material used on his street.

Treasurer until all the work had been accepted by the superintendent of streets.

The secretary reported that the superintendent of streets had disturbed the sewer on the east side of Telegraph avenue, but Councilman McAdams had discovered upon investigation that all the traps in the catch basins were defective, thus explaining the escape of sewer gas at catch basins at the corners of streets on Telegraph avenue, where this class of traps are used.

Petitions for several electric street lights to be located at the following points were presented, Fortieth and Grove, Fifty-second and Shafter, and Forty-seventh and Telegraph avenue.

It was at the latter dark point by the hedge on the Wallace property that Mr. Shepard was held up on the evening of July 3, and robbed of $18.75. Considerable discussion upon the matter of oiling Telegraph avenue was held and it was the opinion of all that it would be well to oil the streets thoroughly and properly while the macadam was new as the oiling done by the street car lines had demonstrated that it was a vast improvement over watering and a committee consisting of E. Friedberg, J. W. Jones and C. H. Pearson was appointed to confer with the proper authorities to have the oiling done.

E. C. Dotterer of Forty-ninth and Shafter streets advocated the planting of ornamental trees and requested all property owners to plant same. F. M. Notages of Cherry and Forty-sixth streets, stated that he had ordered trees and would plant them as soon as his streets were macadamized.

ENTERTAIN.

Tharion, Jr., Miss Elizabeth M. Ploud, Miss Helen M. Howland and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howland.

POLICE RAID HANDBOOK RESORTS

CHICAGO, July 28.—Spectacular raiding of handbook resorts, in which eighty-four men were taken prisoners in four hours' work, marked John M. Collins' second day's work as General Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department. Then at night came descents on ten poker games.

Following out his startling action of Wednesday evening, when he interrupted several time-honored poker games, the new Chief yesterday removed Assistant Chief Schuetzler from the command of the gambling detail, and took personal charge himself, announcing at the same time that he would hold his inspectors responsible for whatever gambling was discovered in their districts.

Armed with search warrants and sledgehammers the "gambling detail" continued at night the destructive raids which had terrorized the gambling fraternity during the preceding twenty-four hours.

A score of warrants, to which the signatures of two police magistrates were appended, were given to the raiders and descents on ten "clubs" were made before midnight. The paraphernalia, or that part of it left intact after the onslaught of the raiders was confiscated.

MISS ADA KENNA, A SEPTEMBER BRIDE, AND HER MATRON OF HONOR, MRS. IRVING BURRELL.

WEDDING AT THE KENNA HOME

MISS ADA KENNA WILL BE A BRIDE IN SEPTEMBER.

One of the prettiest affairs of the coming week will be the engagement luncheon which Miss Edith McCabe will give Saturday, August 5, for Miss Edith Gaskill, the charming fiancée of Roy McCabe. The luncheon will be served in the Palm Garden of the Palace Hotel, and the guest list includes a dozen friends of the young guest of honor.

Miss Gaskill is one of the most popular girls on this side of the bay, and a great deal of interest is centered in the coming wedding, which will be a September event.

Miss McCabe, with her mother, Mrs. M. J. McCabe, has just returned from six months' travel abroad.

GOING SOUTH.
Mrs. Charles Lyman Bent and Mrs. Hayley Bennett, of Little Rock, Ark., who has been spending several weeks as Mrs. Bent's guest at "Fernside," the Cohen home in Alameda, expect to leave Saturday for Southern California. They will spend two weeks visiting Los Angeles, Coronado, Santa Barbara, Pasadena and other cities of interest in the South.

SEPTEMBER WEDDING.
The marriage of Miss Ada Kenna, daughter of Mrs. P. J. G. Kenna, and Murray Orrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Orrick, of Vernon Heights, will be an early September event. The marriage will be a quiet affair, and will be solemnized at the Kenna home in East Oakland.

The bride will have two attendants, Mrs. Irving Burrell, matron of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Orrick, maid of honor. The guest list includes only relatives.

STAG DINNER.
Edward M. Bray has invited fifty friends to participate in a dinner to be given Saturday evening in the red room of the Poodle Dog restaurant, across the bay. The guests will be members of the Merchants' Exchange Club, of San Francisco, of which the host is president.

IMPROVEMENT CLUBS ARE REPRESENTED

FRUITVALE, July 28.—Residents of this and surrounding districts have interested themselves greatly in the proposal to give the Oakland Traction Company a franchise along East Fourteenth street. The improvement clubs and the Fruitvale Board of Trade sent three delegates apiece to the Council meeting in Oakland last night, as follows: Sam Nelson, J. Tate and U. A. Lewis from the Alameda Central Improvement Club; A. Brannon, J. Berlin, and C. De Golia from the High Street Club; L. C. Marshall, B. Burgess, and R. Tolley from the Laurel Grove Club; and J. S. Sanborn, S. Sargent, and John Bold from the Board of Trade.

The residents of Alameda, Laurel Grove, and Westall are working for the proposition on account of the understanding that a spur to that district will soon be constructed. The people there have long been without proper accommodations for getting to Fruitvale and Oakland. The improvement clubs have been working up a protest for a co-operative stage line between Alameda and Fruitvale, but if the new track is laid this will be unnecessary.

MISSIONARY DAY AT TWIN LAKES

SANTA CRUZ, July 28.—Yesterday was Missionary day, the big day at the Twin Lake Baptist Assembly. The morning was devoted to a school of methods, the theme being "How to Interest Sunday Schools in Missionary Foreign Missions." The afternoon was given to a "Systematic Study of Missions." In the afternoon Rev. L. C. Sawyer of San Francisco spoke on "How to Plan the Work and Work the Plan." In the evening Rev. A. E. Dally, general missionary of the Southern California Baptist Convention, spoke on evangelism.

CANNOT UNLOAD AT LONG WHARF

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—That Acting Customs Collector William B. Hamilton refused permission to the British ship Battle Abbey to unload at Oakland a cargo of redwood, taken on at Eureka has caused much rejoicing among shipping men interested in the American coasting trade. The redwood which had been stored between decks has been taken on deck and the place refilled with pine doors, sashes and blinds for Fremantle, Australia. There was much speculation yesterday in San Francisco as to the result of the case.

15 YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covered Head and Body.

CURED IN WEEK BY CUTICURA

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scabs, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week. FRIENDS AWAIT COMING OF BRILLIANT WOMAN

MRS. RICHARD W. TULLY.

Mrs. Richard W. Tully's Forthcoming Visit in Berkeley Awakens Many Pleasant Anticipations.

BERKELEY, July 28.—The visit of Mrs. Richard W. Tully, formerly Miss May Eleanor Gates, of Berkeley, which is promised for the near future, is a source of pleasant anticipation on the part of her many friends here. Mrs. Tully has made a marked success of her writings. In the last year or two, and since her marriage to Richard Tully, the brilliant young Californian playwright, and her residence in New York, Mrs. Tully has made very rapid strides towards the foremost ranks of the women writers of today.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tully were rated brilliant students at the University of California, where they graduated.

Her present visit will probably cover several months, and a number of receptions in her honor, to be given by some of the larger Western clubs, are being announced as among the winter's plans in local clubdom.

PREPARE FOR OPENING OF BERKELEY SCHOOLS

Superintendent S. D. Waterman Issues a Statement for the Guidance of Pupils and Teachers.

BERKELEY, July 28.—Schools will open in Berkeley next Monday. In that connection City Superintendent of Schools S. D. Waterman has issued the following statement:

"There will be a general meeting of the teachers on Saturday, July 29th, at 2:30 p. m. in the assembly room of the High School.

"The committee on classification will report their assignment of teachers at the next meeting of the board. The classes will be continued during the term, as far as it can be done with the present condition of some of the buildings, to which additions are now being made. It will be necessary to hold half-day sessions in several of the rooms during the first few weeks of the term, thus utilizing each room for two classes. This plan is temporary, but it will be far more satisfactory than either the use of rented rooms or the transfer of classes to rooms at a distance from the main buildings, even if such rooms were available.

"The attention of the unvaccinated is again called to the instructions that no pupil will be admitted without a vaccination certificate from some regular physician, or a certificate of physical disability from Dr. Reinhardt, the Health Officer. This does not apply to those who furnished certificates of vaccination last year, but to new pupils and to those who were admitted to the schools last year on certificates other than for successful vaccination."

The affair was strictly invitational, and the gathering was a select one. The committee preparing for the event included the following Druidesses: Mrs. C. S. Alford, chairman; Mrs. A. White, and Mrs. M. Flanagan.

Light refreshments were served to the guests during the latter part of the evening. The "jollification" continued until midnight.

WHAT IT COSTS TO SEE THE FAIR

Visitors at the 1st and Clark Exposition in Portland this summer will be surprised to find how cheaply the big fair may be seen. The expenses of a trip depend largely, of course, upon the individual who makes the trip, but a careful study of the cost of seeing the exposition will find a fair, accurate idea of the cost of seeing the exposition.

The visitor in Portland will find an abundance of suitable accommodations, and may save a considerable sum by not using pay in excess of $1 a night for clean, comfortable lodgings. Within the past few months temporary hotels and lodging-houses with a total of 2670 rooms have been erected near the main entrance to the grounds, while the American Hotel, which has 636 rooms, 636 rooms. In addition to these accommodations the Hill Military Academy and the Hotel Hall will be available, while almost every house in the district between the downtown portion of Portland and the exposition will take lodgers during the summer. In most cases accommodations may be found within easy walking distance of the grounds, and at the grounds. Twenty-five cents should pay for breakfast, and 25 cents for lunch. For persons who are not in the evening meal 50 cents may be considered a fair price, making the cost of the meal $1.

Admission to the grounds costs 50 cents and an allowance of a similar sum should be made for incidentals, which include admissions to several attractions on the Trail, the amusement street.

The schedule of expenses per day for the average person of economy then is as follows:

Lodging, per day.....$1.00
Meal.....1.00
Admission to grounds......50
Trail shows, etc......50

This schedule is on the basis of a five-day stay at the fair. All who can possibly do so should spend at least ten days, however. For these the expense need not be quite so great per day, as it may be possible to get rooms at a lower rate by engaging them for a week or more, and the entire expense per day may be reduced to 50 cents. The person who spends the longer period should take advantage of the opportunity to view some of the interesting features of the city, the Willamette and Columbia rivers and the snow-capped mountains may be enjoyed. Other delightful but inexpensive trips include a visit by street car to City Park and a ride on the Willamette river by boat. The cost of these trips may be deducted from the 50-cent a day allotted for Trail attractions and souvenirs, since the total expense for these features need not exceed the $2.50 laid aside in figuring the cost of the five-day trip. Figuring as above, then, the expense of a five-day stay at the fair may be reckoned as follows:

Five-day visit:
Lodging.....$5.00
Meals.....5.00
Admissions and incidentals.....5.00
Total necessary expense.....$15.00

Ten-day visit:
Lodging.....$7.50
Meals.....7.50
Admissions.....10.00
Incidentals, including souvenirs, Trail attractions, and car and boat rides.....2.50
Total necessary expense.....$35.00

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

W. E. DARGIE, President

Business Office and Publishing House, 413-417 Eighth Street, Oakland.

A New Transcontinental Route

The announcement that contracts have already been entered into whereby the bulk of the next Hawaiian sugar crop will be transported to New York via the isthmus of Tehuantepec is of more than ordinary significance. It is notice that a new route for transcontinental traffic is about to enter the field. This new route promises to be a formidable competitor to the Panama route as well as the transcontinental roads terminating at San Francisco, Portland and Seattle.

Hitherto the bulk of the sugar produced in Hawaii has been landed at Pacific coast ports of the United States, principally in San Francisco, though some of it has been shipped around the horn. If the bulk of Hawaiian sugar is henceforth to reach the Atlantic seaboard by Tehuantepec, or Panama even, the trade of San Francisco is likely to suffer. There is no reason why the tobacco, hemp and sugar of the Philippines and the tea and silks of China should not go the same route. In that case a great deal of ocean traffic would be diverted from American ports and the overland carrying trade of the American transcontinental roads greatly reduced.

The new Tehuantepec road, with its harbor approaches and dock system, is nearing completion, and will be opened for regular traffic this year. The reconstruction of this line and the construction of safe and commodious deep water harbors on both sides of the isthmus has cost the Mexican government a vast sum of money. Pearson & Sons, an English syndicate, has a lease of the property for a period of fifty-one years.

The terminal facilities at Coatzacoalcas on the Atlantic side and Salina Cruz on the Pacific are said to be as perfect of their kind as exist in the world. An elaborate dockage system has been provided whereby steamers can discharge their cargoes directly into cars on the railroad wharves. Contracts are already let for a large fleet of ocean steamers to secure and handle the trade of both oceans. The engineers in charge have estimated the actual carrying cost of freight over the line, including loading and unloading at the terminal, at 60 cents a ton. Against this is the proposed Panama toll of $1 a ton, which is the same as the Suez toll.

Tehuantepec is 1200 miles north of Panama and but 800 miles from New Orleans. As the crow flies, the distance across the isthmus is 124 miles, but as it is necessary to deviate in building the railroad, the distance from the Atlantic to the Pacific is a little over 190 miles. The maximum elevation of the roadway is 730 feet, and at no other point along the Mexican coast is it possible to cross with so slight a grade.

The contract to carry the Hawaiian sugar crop is the first gun in the campaign to divert traffic from San Francisco to this Mexican line controlled by English capitalists. It denotes the beginning of a struggle for trade supremacy in the Pacific that is of vital interest to San Francisco. The Canadian Pacific on the north is striving to divert traffic by that route, and a new line across Mexico from Acapulco to Tampico is now in course of construction. These facts admonish the merchants and railroad managers of the United States that they must put forth their best efforts if this country is not to suffer from a threatened diversion of traffic.

The millionaire owner of an automobile punched a San Francisco expressman for allowing himself to be run into. Now what would that choleric son of wealth do to a bank or a tree?

The veracious correspondent of the London Mail says the Emperor of Germany and the Czar of Russia "discussed Norway" in their recent meeting on board a yacht in the Baltic. Perhaps they talked of Norway because it would be indelicate to discuss their own affairs. But how did the correspondent of the London Mail learn the purport of that memorable conversation? The two sovereigns were careful to exclude everybody from their communion, which took place under circumstances which forbid the idea that anyone else should have listened to what they had to say. It may be assumed that they discussed matters of far greater immediate moment to them than Norway. What these matters were may be guessed, but it may well be assumed that no newspaper correspondent has been enlightened in regard to them.

It is to be hoped that the decision knocking out the salary law for justices and constables will not mean a revival of the iniquitous practice of jailing tramps to swell fees.

Secretary Wilson's Humiliation.

No wonder Secretary Wilson has a serious attack of indigestion. The revelations in regard to the thrifty operations of his trusted subordinates being made are enough to make anybody sick. Nobody questions the absolute integrity of Secretary Wilson, and it is acknowledged without debate that he is the best Secretary of Agriculture the country has ever had, but the conclusion is irresistible that he has been grossly imposed upon by a nest of grafters who got a foothold in his department and gained his confidence only to abuse it. Many circumstances indicate that the reports of crop conditions have been extensively and systematically manipulated for years in the interest of groups of speculators, who have been systematically milking the public. A thorough investigation and cleaning out of the department has therefore become necessary.

Unfortunately a cloud has been cast over the statistics of the department. John Hyde, who virtuously resigned because he had been unjustly accused, according to his story, appears to little better advantage than Holmes, the disgraced chief clerk. He has been using his position to further the financial and political interests of his friends, and the inference is that he has done this for his own profit. He is also accused with great circumstantiality of altering statistical reports on his own motion when they did not suit his own purposes or views. Immediately after resigning he attempted to forestall the government's report by making a published statement regarding crop conditions. This was clearly done to influence the market, and was a gross breach of confidence strongly confirmatory of the truth of the charges made against Hyde.

The crop reports must be correct or they are valueless. All advance knowledge of them must be withheld if the entire machinery for gathering the information is not to be prostituted to private ends diametrically opposed to public policy. If the Bureau of Statistics of the Agricultural Department is to be a mere speculative instrument in the hands of grafters and speculators, the money expended upon it is a criminal waste of public funds. If the statistics are to be sophisticated to serve any purpose whatever, the bureau had better be abolished altogether.

Although Statistician Hyde resigned under fire and with a cloud of accusations hanging over him, Secretary Wilson allowed himself to be imposed on to the extent of giving his retiring subordinate a certificate of character. No better proof could be given that the amiable Secretary is not the one to probe the scandals in the department. He cannot convince himself that fraud has entered his official household, and in consequence he goes on closing his eyes and blindly trusting men who have betrayed his confidence and brought scandal on his department. Doubtless the President desires to spare his feelings as far as possible, but he feels the urgent necessity of purging the department and cleansing its statistics from the taint of manipulation. He has therefore been compelled to commit the task into hands other than those of Secretary Wilson. This is an assurance that the leaks will be stopped and the grafters dislodged.

California's Bad Crop Year.

The apple growers of the Pajaro Valley are complaining of blight in their orchards. The crop is almost a total failure this year, the quality of the fruit reaching maturity being decidedly inferior. This complaint is echoed by the peach growers all over the State. With few exceptions the yield is poor and the quality inferior. It was the same with cherries. Apricots fared better, but plums are the only fruit crop in this State that is full and up to standard. Something seems to have been wrong with this season, although early in the season it promised to be an ideal one. It has been many years since the quality of the grain harvested was so poor. Red oats in the Sacramento valley and the foothills adjoining are almost a complete failure, while a black rot has cut down the walnut and almond crops. The quality of the hay produced is, generally speaking, far below the average. Much of it was injured by late rains. Vegetables are also inferior. Something seems to have been out of joint with this season, but experienced agriculturists appear to be unable to tell just what is the matter. Such conditions call for close study on the part of the agrostological experts at the State University. Scientific research has here a field of usefulness hardly to be properly estimated. The university experts have an opportunity to render the farming interests a valuable service by ascertaining precisely the causes which have rendered an apparently favorable season a most unsatisfactory one.

Collier's Weekly points out a number of things in which it says President Roosevelt is lacking. With becoming modesty no mention is made of the chief lack, which is that the President has failed absolutely to consult the editor of Collier's as to how he should manage the executive departments of the government.

E. B. Kruttschnitt of New Orleans, who has been elected a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is a brother of Julius Kruttschnitt, director of operation of all the Harriman lines. He is a distinguished lawyer of the Crescent City, and is a power in Louisiana politics. As he is identified professionally with the Harriman interests, it is to be presumed that his election to the Equitable directorate is in a sense a concession to the Harriman-Kuhn, Loeb & Co. group of railway financiers. Apparently an effort is being made to have all the great financial interests of the country represented in the Equitable board. This policy is probably dictated by the conviction that a disaster to the Equitable would precipitate a crash which would disastrously affect financial interests generally.

THE ESKIMO'S CANOE.

It is in Greenland that the hunting ability of the Eskimo reaches its highest development. He has a fine mechanical skill. Bones, ivory, stones, a little driftwood, skins and the sinew of the reindeer are the materials from which he must make his boat and weapons. There is nothing else. Says a Greenland traveler: "Of these the Eskimo builds a canoe, its frame of bones and driftwood, its covering of translucent seal-skin sewn together with a sinew. This kayak is decked over, except for a hole in the middle framed with a wooden ring. The Eskimo wriggles into this hole, his legs extended into the forepart of the boat. Round his waist there is a cylinder of seal-skin, the lower edge of which draws over the wooden ring and is

AUTO DRIVERS FINED

MRS. SPRECKELS' CHAUFFEUR AND ALFRED TUBBS ARE TAXED $25 EACH.

WATSONVILLE, July 28.—For speeding automobiles within the city limits at a rate exceeding eight miles an hour, C. H. Diehl, chauffeur for Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels, and Alfred S. Tubbs, the millionaire cordage manufacturer of Oakland, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday afternoon, and, on pleading guilty, were fined $25 each. Tubbs took his arrest good-naturedly, and while objecting to being classed as a reckless driver, paid his fine without a murmur. But Mrs. Spreckels was very indignant and gave her opinion of country justice in scathing sarcasm.

"Mr. Spreckels will take this matter up," she said. "He has attorneys retained by the year, and I am sure he will not permit me to be stood up in this way. This is a wretched apology for a Police Court, I must say."

Early yesterday three immense machines went speeding through Watsonville at a forty-mile-an-hour clip. A local constable named John Carr bridged the motor cars coming over the bridge. He managed to stop the car driven by Tubbs, but the others swept by in a cloud of dust, only to run by Chief of Police F. A. Rasette, who was able to take the numbers of the machines as they turned down the Santa Cruz road.

Telephonic communication with Santa Cruz officials led to the arrest in that city, and late in the afternoon Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels, very dusty and tired, appeared in the office of the Chief of Police, accompanied by her chauffeur. She wore a tan suit, a green veil and her tan shoes beat a rapid tattoo on the floor as she tried to explain that her automobile was not going faster than a snail's pace.

"Why, I never heard of such a thing!" she exclaimed. "The run from Del Monte to Santa Cruz is made in two hours and a half, and we took fully three hours. I never allow my chauffeur to go fast. I am very nervous about fast driving. I would not run over a chicken and have never been held up before. I am sure there is some mistake." She cast a withering glance at Chief of Police Rasette and his assistant, Constable Carr. "I am sure I wish this had never happened, and my only hope is to get out of it as easily as possible. Isn't my word good when I tell you that we were going very slowly?" she asked the court.

Judge Sans intimated that he was not there to give advice, but to hear evidence, and he wanted to know if Chauffeur Diehl would plead guilty or not guilty.

"What will you make the fine, Judge, if my chauffeur pleads guilty?" she inquired.

"Not much, you know," replied the Judge. "He is a good chauffeur and has never been fined before."

CHAUFFEUR PLEADS GUILTY. The court declined to state what the fine would be until a plea was made, and after Diehl pleaded guilty the court imposed a fine of $25. This angered Mrs. Spreckels.

"Why, I have only $10 with me. Can't you make the fine that amount? In San Francisco chauffeurs are fined right along $5 or $10. This is not right. This is a stand-up game, and you will regret it. My car is as good as that man's (pointing to Chief of Police Rasette), and I wouldn't tell a lie for a million dollars."

When gently reminded by Judge Sans that her chauffeur had pleaded guilty, she sank back with a scornful look and said no more.

Diehl found a harness-maker who was willing to lend him $15 and the fine was paid, and Mrs. Spreckels, shaking the Watsonville dust from her natty costume, entered her luxurious automobile, which came away at a snail's speed.

About an hour later Alfred S. Tubbs came up to the office of the Chief of Police, which by that time was surrounded by a crowd of interested spectators.

I want to settle this matter," was his first remark. "But I don't want to be alone in this when two other machines were going faster than I was."

He was assured that Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels had just left town after paying a $25 fine.

PREFERS SMALLER FINE. "But her automobile was going faster than mine. I ought to pay about half as much. But I will consent my wife."

It was told, as in the case of Mrs. Spreckels' chauffeur, that he could plead not guilty and stand trial, but this did not suit the millionaire.

He paid the sum, although Mrs. Tubbs said it was unjust and a parody on justice, and shaking hands with the officials left. The first machine, that numbered 1160 and stands in the name of Harry Russell, was not apprehended, and it was supposed that its driver had preferred to make a run for it, possibly to San Jose.

The arrests were made in accordance with the determination on the part of the Chief of Police to put a stop to the reckless speeding of big touring cars through the city streets. Not a day passes but what there is a narrow escape from accident, due to the carelessness of rich owners of automobiles driven at terrific speed through the main streets of the town on the road from Del Monte to Santa Cruz.

BIG COMBINE. COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 27.—Coal, railroad and dock properties conservatively estimated to be worth $50,000,000 in which Columbus capital is largely interested have been combined into one company at a meeting held in New York.

It will be the second largest coal corporation in the world and will be known as the Sunday Creek Company. Seven coal corporations owning properties scattered through Ohio and West Virginia and employing in the neighborhood of 18,000 men are now to operate under one directorate and set of officers. The consolidation of interests leading officials drop out to make room for those who figure in the reorganization which becomes effective August 1st.

MRS. HINTON WILL NOT FORGIVE HUSBAND

Member of the Holy Jumpers Declares Her Husband is Lost and Will Go to the Warm Place.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I noticed in the TRIBUNE Bill Hinton is in town sending from his evil heart persecutions against me and what he calls the Holy Jumpers. I am not surprised at this, as I have known for about four years he was an enemy to God and his people. I suffered his persecutions long before I knew the holy people, so I am used to it now. The Holy Bible says: "They that live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecutions, and not only persecutions but some shall kill you;" and I think he has done God's service, so the holy word says.

I want to say Hinton has told crooked tales. God's people did not persuade me to leave home. This is not the doctrine they preach, and Hinton can't prove that they ever persuaded me to leave home. I am old enough to choose for myself. The holy people have been away from my home place, North Shelm, for over a year before I left home. Had Hinton treated me as a husband should treat his wife, I might have been home today. I don't care to take the time to explain his cruel treatment to me. I noticed he said we lived happily together the first six years of our married life. It is false from beginning to end. Ask him, does he remember the times we separated, especially one time when I went to work in a store, and he came to me drunk and I had to have him taken by a police in Atlanta, Ga.

I guess he remembers. And as to me being his first sweetheart, as he puts it, please ask him where his first wife is, that he married at Lawrenceville, Ga. She had to get a divorce from him, and I, not realizing what I was doing, jumped into, jumped in the same fire, and have been burnt by it. Now I want to get out of it. I know nothing of any property Hinton and I own. I myself own one lot in Bheim, have the deeds in my own name, and bought it with my own earned money by working in a hosiery mill. I also clothed myself and helped to pay the other expenses. I notice he didn't publish about getting $51 from me a few days before I left home and has never paid a penny of it; also in Texas I let him have $20 as he promised to pay me back. I came to California to get away from him, as he has threatened my life. He said if I had anything to say to my brother I had better write and say it as he was going to come up on me when I wasn't expecting him and kill me, and then kill himself. I was warned to die but believe he has yet to howl and weep throughout eternity. I thought I would leave home, and come to California. He followed me and has caused me all the trouble he could, and he has publicly slandered my character, and then claims he wants me to make up with him and be a wife to him. I shouldn't want a wife that I accused of not living right.

It is true I have been in Oakland since November 8, and have been, as it were in a cave to keep Hinton from finding me, as I feared he would take my life. I knew he had devil in him, and I believe he has yet to take me here, but my people have all gone from here as their work was done, and I am not with them now, as my church does not uphold divorces. I had rather live alone than to cause them any more trouble. I know God has people the world over with whom I can worship and work for the Lord.

I can live a holy life if I never see another holy person on earth. By God's help and strength I never mean to have a private talk with Hinton so he had better stay out of my presence. All of his pleadings will not charm me. I never mean to live with him again. He has acted so ugly, I haven't got one drop of love for any of his ways. I love his soul and haven't failed to hold Jesus up to him, yet, by his actions he has said, "away with this Jesus, I won't have anything to do with him," and he makes his way to hell. I can't help it. I mean by God's help to make mine in heaven. Whether I get a divorce or not, I never mean to live with him. I mean it from the bottom of my heart. He is not worthy of a wife's love. As to my whereabouts, I don't care for Hinton knowing now, for if he comes around I shall have protection from the law. All he has to say to me he can say it to the public, and I will do the same.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Uterine Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice, nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night."

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me."

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

DR. BRUGUIERE IS AFTER DIVORCE

WANTS A LEGAL SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE ON GROUND OF DESERTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—An interesting social scandal, kept secret for over a year, has been made public by the filing of a suit for divorce by Dr. Pedar Bruguiere, a prominent San Francisco physician. The suit was filed three days ago in Reno, Nev., where Dr. Bruguiere was married to Miss Marie Andrews on December 20, 1902, and in the complaint Dr. Bruguiere declares that his wife deserted him last July. The doctor asks that the custody of their two-year-old child be given to the mother, and requests the court to name whatever sum he shall pay for its support.

Dr. Pedar Bruguiere is a member of one of San Francisco's most exclusive old French families, prominent as a physician, renowned locally as an amateur photographer and known to the world as a thoroughly good fellow.

His marriage with Miss Andrews a few years ago was not his first venture in the field of matrimony. He had had a previous and somewhat volatile alliance with the daughter of Judge McKissick. Miss Madeline McKissick, an actress of some local fame. Shortly after the divorce Dr. Bruguiere persuaded Miss Andrews, with whom he was frankly infatuated at first sight, to become his bride in Nevada, not sufficient time having elapsed to make the ceremony legal in California.

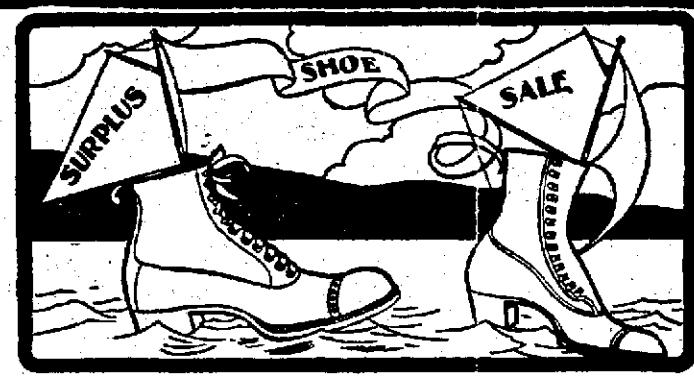

The union of Miss Andrews and Bruguiere was apparently a happy and congenial one. The young physician had a handsome income, his bride unusual beauty and they seemed to share artistic and domestic tastes. It was not until about a year ago that a young woman, who is said to be the cause of all the trouble, made her entrance as an actor in the domestic drama that bids fair to end so disastrously. She is little more than a schoolgirl and has some peculiar attraction which Mrs. Bruguiere's friends draw to her side, every day more potent, the devoted Bruguiere.

Although Dr. Bruguiere has since his wife's separation from him rented and furnished a pretty flat at Post and Steiner streets, he is not often to be seen there. During the opera season at the Tivoli last winter and the young woman frequently occupied a large box, where they listened to the efforts of the artists before them.

Meantime Mrs. Pedar Bruguiere, beautiful, accomplished and 23, is living quietly at the St. Francis Hotel with her little son, of whom she has assumed all personal care. That she has no wish for a legal separation was volunteered by a friend whose intimacy gives her right to speak. Mrs. Bruguiere herself declined to be interviewed on account of her domestic affairs, and has little love for newspaper publicity of the same is evinced by the fact that this state of affairs has existed a year with no public demonstration from the suit started Bruguiere in Reno is the first intimation which has been made that the marriage is not right with the couple.

Switzerland, of the Seventh Congress of Zionists, which movement was founded by Dr. Herzl.

From dusk until midnight the streets of the Jewish quarter were ablaze with lights. In the narrow streets the atmosphere was suffocating but none seemed to notice it. Every Hebrew able to walk was in the street and seemed happy and hopeful for the future. With the flares of their torches lighting up 10,000 Jewish Jews, who though not enrolled loudly expressed their sympathy, 3,000 members of the Zionist League marched to the music of many bands.

There were old men with black skulls caps and heavy beards, young men and little boys and girls, each waving the flag of Zion, which is white with two blue stripes and a single six pointed star in the center. When the parade had been dismissed it proceeded in sections to various halls where the Zionist movement was discussed by speakers until a late hour.

PROPHET'S RELATIVE AGAINST POLYGAMY

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 28.—Fredrick W. Smith, grandson of the prophet Joseph Smith, and the son of Joseph Smith, the present head of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, has started a propaganda to convert the Mormons of Utah to the former principles of the church as enumerated by the prophet. As the initial step in his campaign Mr. Smith has issued an open letter to the Mormons of Utah, appealing to them to abandon polygamy, commercialism and political interference. Authorities are quoted to prove that Brigham Young led the people away from the teachings of the prophet.

JIMMY DUFFY WOMEN WILL NEIL AND TENNY WILL BATTLE TONIGHT

IS HERE AGAIN SAIL IN RACE

And Gives the "Rialto Kid" a Bit of Limelight. One to Captain Crew of Her Sex in Yacht Contest.

"They didn't spare either pains or expense, eh, Jimmy?" asked "Pop" Davis, as he turned away from the mirror he was polishing to watch Duffy make goo-goo eyes at the curacao and angostura bottles.

Duffy, as was his custom, shrugged his shoulder once or twice, as if adjusting the suspender on that side of his anatomy, and, blinking, ignored the question by asking another.

"Did you see the 'Rialto Kid'?" he mumbled.

"Don't start the story-telling till you get the trachoma out of your eyes," suggested Doc Canty.

"There's nothing doing, Kido, when you get to cutting up like that," said Duffy, severely. "I'm giving it to you straight. Didn't I tell you when Mame Sutton went over to England she'd make all those fussies look emaciated. And didn't she? Didn't she put those sprouts on the other side through some fancy steps when it came to the nets and jacquets? They tell me all the peach-peelers across the pond got hot ankles before they'd gone one set."

"Tuck in with the modern story," demanded Doc Canty. "May Sutton won the tennis tourney more than a month ago."

"And she can do it again," declared Duffy, defiantly. "She'd make any of those fussies look like a spoiled duc in a pinoche deck. That reminds me of the time Sam Pruitt, the black man with the yellow streak, fought a so-called white man over at Woodward's. Alex Greggains wanted to give the spectators a chance to kick without meaning it."

"Get up," said Alex, but Pruitt never stirred, although he had gone down holding the ropes like a battleship sinking in shallow water.

"Get up!" commanded Greggains again, and he and Smith kept repeating the command till Pruitt rolled over on his back and groaned.

"You can do one count all night, Mars Alex, but I can't get up no more. He done knocked mah eye tooth out, and I can't see him nohow."

"Hush kidding, and get wise to yourself," said Mike Hallinan, who had drifted in to see that nothing was started that "Pop" couldn't stop.

"I was just telling them about the Rialto Kid," Duffy apologized.

"Freddie," asked Mike in consternation, "I thought he was on his vacation."

"He was, perhaps he is," replied Duffy, giving two more shrugs, his shoulder and lurching up his trousers, sailor-wise. "It was all this way Freddie went over to San Francisco when they told him he could have a vacation. He wanted to take a turn of the metropolis and see Tim McCreedy before taking his wife to the fastnesses of the beighted interior of California. When he reached the ferry building he met Charley Spear and Charley Mautalen. Spear and Mautalen were on Crowley's cart, but they went with Freddie till he had consumed so many gin cocktails that he thought he was one of a committee to settle the Chinese boycott. When he wanted to go up to Chinatown to argue the question with the clunks Spear suggested that they go over to Golden Gate and see Gus Ruhl in work. On the way over Spear and Mautalen mysteriously disappeared and Freddie brought up at the Mullet-head's with a bundle that Pop Davis couldn't carry if he tried.

"Accounts differ as to whether the 'Rialto Kid' saw Ruhl in working along toward midnight, but the Mullet-head sure did serve a few cocktails.

"The next we heard of Freddie, some friends were packing him upstairs to his home in Oakland. His watch was hanging out of his pocket, and his life while on the stairs. Next morning Freddie started for the street. When he reached the sidewalk he realized that his timepiece was gone. He retraced his steps and crawled under the bed.

"What's the matter, dear?" asked the missus innocently.

"Freddie said something about the time conference, and Mrs. Freddie calmly asked him the time of day. Alarming something about being late, Freddie made his escape. At the nearest telephone he called up Al White.

"Is there anything going on?" he asked.

"What do you want?" was the counter-question.

"Is there anything doing?"

"Shut up," said White, as he banged up the telephone.

"Then the pride of the Rialto began a house-to-house canvass, as the pollys say, trying to find his watch, and every place he went he struck the same old kidding. Finally, in despair, he went home to tell his wife, and she, how he had been touched. The first thing he saw when he reached his room was the ticker. Before he left Freddie swore off.

"What's the moral?" asked Doc Canty.

"There's none," replied Jimmy, as he rolled another cigarette, but Freddie said before he left that he felt as if he had spent a night dodging the bullets and uppercuts of Danny Needham."

Bantamweight Title of America at Stake.

Those who take interest in things pugilistic will be out in full force tonight to see the twenty-five round bout between Frankie Neil and Harry Tenny at Colma. Neil is the acknowledged champion of all the bantams in America, and is always a drawing card and the sports believe that he is up against a man this time who will give him a hard fight and who may, in fact, wrest the championship from him.

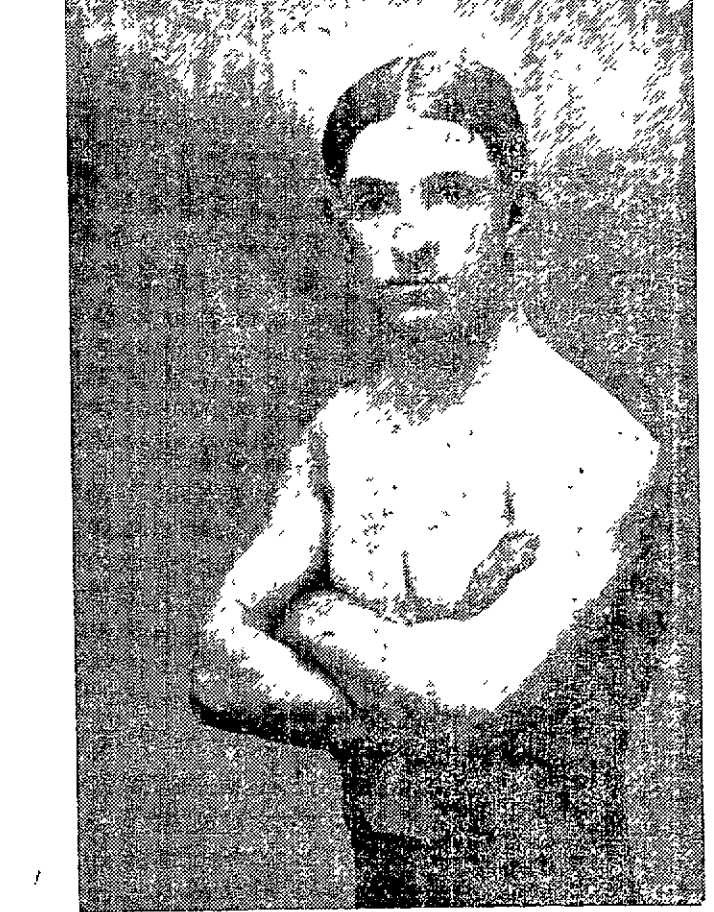

There has been a lot of talk of the knockout blow of Tenny, and this talk is not without reason, for the little man who is making his first appearance in the professional ring has put nearly three times as many men out of business as has Neil, who has been facing professionals for so long in all parts of this country and in England. One thing besides skill and the wallop that Tenny has in his favor is a bunch of confidence in his own ability to become champion. He has fought so many battles in the amateur ranks that there will be no stage fright when he steps into the ring. This same confidence will lend much weight toward victory with him, and he will be fighting hard from the very first.

Jim Neil, the father of the little champion, arrived in San Francisco from Portland yesterday and after spending a few hours in the city went right out to San Rafael where Frankie has been training. Of course he could see nothing to the fight but victory for his son, and he did not in the least mind the talk of the mighty wallop that Tenny is said to possess.

Both fighters had finished training yesterday and neither of them has had and trolleys will leave the corner of Fifth and Market every five minutes after 6:30. There will also be good service from the ferries; as all cars that go out Mission street from the Ferry will go directly to the Colma pavilion, and as many cars as are required to take the crowd down will be waiting on the sidewalk to return them to town before midnight.

NELSON IS VICTOR IN BAR-ROOM SCRAP

RENO, July 28.—Batting Nelson has arrived in Truckee, and last night, while getting acquainted with the residents of the mountain town, ran against one of the most strenuous experiences of his career. While talking to a friend in a saloon he was accosted by a jolly crowd of hay hands, just in from the harvest fields and out for a good time.

"Get out of my way, kid," one of the big fellows said to Nelson as he pushed him from in front of the bar.

"Pardner, me, but I was here first," retorted Nelson. The hay hand could not see it that way, and because of this a rough house started. Not only the harvest man, but two of his companions went down and out for the count before that swing which Nelson had been developing for Brit.

No arrests were made and Bat escaped without a scratch. He has rented a cabin at Truckee and intends to remain in the mountains for some time.

ROY HITT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR IT

Again have the Tigers fled before the bark of the Seals.

Roy Hitt, the Fresno bush-league graduate, was the man behind the shots for the Seals. He held Fisher's championship down to four safeties and was at all times a factor in the contest. For five innings he kept the Tigers off the bags entirely, pitching only three offerings in the fourth section. Thomas of Tacoma was touched up for a double, a quartet, one of them being a crushing two-cushion drive by Hildebrand. The score.

ALEX PAPE TO DEFEND HIS TITLE

PORTLAND, Or., July 28.—Alex Pape of the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club, San Francisco, and E. O. Gloss of the Portland Rowing Club, will meet in a mile and a half sculling race today on Gull's Lake at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Pape now holds the title of champion sculler of the Pacific Coast.

Gloss and Pape met in Astoria in 1901, at which time Pape won the Northwest championship.

Since that time these two scullers have never been together.

HORSES MOST FREQUENTLY RACING

The twenty horses which have run in the greatest number of races this year are given in the appended table together with a record of their performances and the amount of their winnings from Jan. 1, to July 19, inclusive. Collectively they have run in 732 races, an average of nearly thirty-seven races each and an average of a trifle more than five times per month each, though the careers of some of the horses have been decidedly more strenuous, coming back as they have every two or three days for a month or six weeks. The combined winnings of the twenty is $39,397, an average of a fraction less than $2,000 each. But take away the winnings of Arabo, Coruscate, Jake Sanders and Sid Silver, and few of the others have brought profit to their owners.

Bill Phillips, trainer for Fred Cook, has decided to give English Lad up. The Requit colt will not, he fears, do any more. English Lad is not unsound. His legs are as clean as a new fiddle and his feet are as hard as flint. He has been a regular Phillips attributes English Lad's backsliding to his own want of judgment.

I gave the horse a hard race in the mud last fall under 129 pounds, the clever Westerner says "and he has not been himself since. It was a great mistake, because I knew English Lad did not like heavy going. He won but it took hard work to get him home. You never saw a horse labor more desperately. I thought he would get over the effects of this race by a winter's rest but he does not seem to have. I have abandoned hope of freshening him again and he is not worth fooling with any more."

St. Louis bookmakers are keeping tab on the past performances of betters. Doubtless a dose sheet something like this is circulated at the beginning of a day's racing.

LUCKY WILLIE.

This boy will bear watching. He goes to the paddock after every race and usually comes back with something. He never smiles nor takes a drink. Spends his evenings at home and does his own thinking. Never take him for more than $10.

RECKLESS LARRY.

Here is a good thing. Go to it for the boys. Larry comes to the races in an automobile. Drinks wine after each race. Counts his money when people are looking. Will last about a week.

A cheap selling plate. Never bets more than a five spot and always out on the lamb. Quits whenever he gets $3 to the good. No money in this fellow.

SOCIAL JOE.

Treat this man right. He always has friends with him and bets their money not his own. Tells good stories at the bar and makes friends forget their losses.

A Touching Story.

Is the saving from death of the baby girl of George A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was decaying with a very serious Threat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief. After taking four bottles she was cured and is now in perfect health. Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At Osgood's drug stores, Seventh and Broadway, and Twelfth and Washington, 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Croup.

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes, and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat, 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Wm. Hart's drug store.

the slightest trouble in making the weight of 116 pounds, which the articles of agreement call for. As a matter of fact, both boys have been building up ever since they started in training. Neither has been denied anything in the way of nourishing foods for when they both started at work they were lighter than the notch called for.

Neil has probably worked harder for this fight than he ever did for any previous battle he has had. He has had a long rest and was longing for a chance to get back into the ring so training has been rather a pleasure than a hardship for him. He says that while he believes Tenny is a good boy, that he thinks he will prove too good for the little Hebrew who came together.

Last night the betting opened town with Neil a 2 to 1 favorite. There was such money in Neil and Tenny at these odds that the odds were that the odds will be about 7 at the ringside.

Neil will certainly have a capable array of seconds in his corner. Both Spider Kelly and Tim will be with him, and the town is being swung by Marty and Johnny ne. Johnny Fraime has been Neil since he started in training. Neil can see nothing to it but Frankie start to finish.

In the corner with Tenny will be Mike Karnavan, an old-time trainer. He will have full charge of everything that is to be done in the corner, and this augurs well for

BENNINGTON'S DEAD TO BE TAKEN FROM GRAVES

Bodies Will Be Sent to Homes of Relatives—Funeral of Ensign Perry Today.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 28.—At St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at 10 30 o'clock this morning, was held the funeral of Ensign N. K. Perry, the only officer who lost his life in the disaster on the gunboat Bennington.

Rev. J. A. M. Richey was in charge, assisted by Bishop J. H. Johnson, of Los Angeles, and Chaplain Stone, of the flagship Chicago. Commander Young and officers and men of the Bennington, officers and men of the Chicago, active and retired army officers, commodores, heads of city departments, companions of the military order of the Loyal Legion, officers from Fort Rosecrans, officers of the Naval Reserve, local Federal officers and officers and members of the Chamber of Commerce were present.

The general public was not admitted, owing to the limited capacity of the church. The remains will be taken to Stockbridge, Mass., for interment, leaving here tomorrow afternoon.

The bodies should be shipped at the Government's expense. Accordingly, the bodies of the forty-nine boys were interred unembalmed in the little burial ground on the hill.

Now Paymaster Morris is telegraphing to relatives that upon request the bodies will be disinterred and sent home at the expense of the Government. So far such request has come for two of the bodies, and it is likely that a majority of them will be exhumed and sent away.

Among the bodies not buried those of the following have just been sent away: C. L. Burns, to Chicago; Andrew Kamerer, to Londonville, O.; Joseph Newcome, to Quincy, Mass.; Emil Dresch, to Newark, N. J.; Clive W. Brockman, to Des Moines, Ia.; Wm. Frokwell, to Laporte, Ind.; John C. Baruch, to Clarinda, Ia. Charles O. McKee's remains will be forwarded to Fenton, Mich., this evening.

CONDITION OF INJURED.

The condition of the injured at the private hospitals show little change except that Schultz has recovered sufficiently to be removed to the Barrecks Hospital, and W. A. Holly is improving. A. J. Worthen is holding his own. D. Sullivan has a fighting chance and D. R. McClintock and Harvey C. Dean are doing well. P. Nieman, G. H. Hallett, F. G. Muller and L. A. Greise are classed as most seriously ill at present. Skin grafting will have to be performed on about fifteen of the wounded men.

FIX THE LINES FOR THE PARK

Council Makes First Move on the Big Improvement

When the ordinance appropriating $50,000 for the improvement of the park south of the Twelfth street dam and for the dredging of Lake Merritt came up last night before the Park and Boulevard Committee at the Council, it was referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer for a report on the boundaries and title of the property owned by the city. The committee was opposed to proceeding with the work unless the boundaries were definitely established.

Judge John Tuile appeared before the committee and spoke in favor of the project. He stated that the city had an unredempted promise in reference to the park site to carry out.

"When the city accepted the park site," he said, "it was with the understanding that the park would be filled in. I think it high time that that promise was redeemed."

As the committee thought the boundaries essential before proceeding, the matter was referred to the legal and engineering departments of the city government for a report.

APPROPRIATE $5500.

The committee recommended that an ordinance be passed appropriating $5500 for the construction of a stone embankment along Lake Merritt, between Twelfth and Twentieth streets. The appropriation was made on the recommendation of City Engineer Turner. The stone embankment was selected in preference to a wooden one because of its durability.

AUDITING AND FINANCE.

The Auditing and Finance Committee of the City Council last night recommended the appropriation of $499 for the purchase of a hose wagon.

A resolution introduced by Councilman Abner authorizing the Board of Public Works to repair the fountain in the City Hall Park was recommended by the Park and Boulevard Committee.

All other committee work went over until next Thursday evening.

MRS. HAMPTON ON FADS AND FANCIES

NEW YORK, July 28.—Mrs. Wade Hampton, whose name threw open the White House doors and obtained President Roosevelt's photograph and sketch for "Fads and Fancies," tried in vain to use the same lever on the wife of Admiral George Dewey and on Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of the President. Mrs. Dewey was too ill to have any fads, and Mr. Robinson had no fads.

"What is all this fuss about?" asked Mrs. Hampton. "Why, $1500 is a trifle to a multimillionaire, but they pay many times that for a portrait."

"If I had been consulted I would have said that $1500 could have been obtained just as easily."

"Why, Mrs. John W. Gates pays $500 for her portrait. Really, she does. One day the milliner's boy brought with him and Mrs. Gates handed the bill to her husband."

"What?" he exclaimed, "pay $500 for that swatch of a hair?"

"Pay it, J. W. G.," said Mrs. Gates. "Of course he paid it. So, you see, $1500 isn't much for the finest product of the deft hand, and then it was to be imperishable."

CLAIM AGAINST WEALTHY HUSBAND

SAN JOSE, July 28.—Mrs. Mabel M. McAneney yesterday, through her attorneys filed a complaint and a claim for delivery of property in an action against her husband, George B. McAneney. She alleges that on July 3, 1905, she owned goods and chattels to the amount of $2500, which were wrongfully taken from her possession by the defendant.

She demands judgment for their recovery, or $2500 in money, together with $1000 damages and costs. The goods and chattels in question consist of delivery of property, a carriage, wagon, blacksmith shop outfit, ladder, bicycle, stove, harness, hay, horses and cows, horse reals, spray pumps, portable furnace, kettle, chickens and one pig.

ALUMNI MEET.

The Alumni and former students of Oberlin College are arranging to meet President E. C. King, who is giving a course of lectures at the summer school of theology in Berkeley. Next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Christian Church, corner Dana street and Bancroft way, Berkeley, a dinner will be served. Those desiring to attend should send their names at once to the committee in charge, Dr. C. G. Baldwin, 2223 Atherton street, Berkeley, or Rev. L. D. Rathbone, North Berkeley, or H. B. Mowbray, Albany Hotel, Oakland.

A SOUTH AFRICAN KINGDOM.

King Lewanika of Barotseland, in South Africa, made a voyage to England a few years ago in the company of Col. Colin Harding, the British government agent. He was much puzzled by the voyage. "How can we travel by night?" asked the king on one occasion. "There are no lights to steer by, so how can we keep in sight?" Again he asked: "What are those things above my head?" pointing to the life-belts in his cabin. When it was explained that the people put their stomachs down to move up and down, so I used you better than you use me."

In Barotseland Col. Harding one day delivered to a native chief a message which King Lewanika had talked into

GENERAL DURNOVE IS APPOINTED

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—The newspapers today announce the appointment of General Durnove, a member of the council of the empire, as Governor General of Moscow, in place of General Kozlov, who is considered to have been too vacillating in his policy towards the Zemstvo congress. Durnove, who is enormously wealthy, was Governor of Moscow from 1872 to 1878. He has had long experience in administrative posts.

"A delightful sea voyage, good ship, spotlessly clean, officered by good fellows; cuisine equal to best hotel; Table, a dreamland, balmy climate, a variety of scenery. One meets a delightful people, kindly and generous, who extend a broad welcome to visitors to this favored land."—A. S. Marston, for The Times August 6. Reduced rate for round trip, $125. Send for circular, 661 Market street, San Francisco.

Securing evidence upon which warrants could be issued has, up to the present time, been a difficult problem for the district attorney. Thirty looking detectives sent out by the prosecutor were greeted with a blank stare when they hinted that their lives might be saved by violation of the Ocean Grove mile limit law. Sportive looking men arrived at the various hotels with a flourish and began chattering about aridity hunted to deaf employees. A pretty young woman detective from New York was finally called in and through her efforts the needful evidence was easily secured. All the arrested pleaded not guilty and were placed under bond for trial.

CRICKET MATCH. PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—The Marylebone Cricket Club of London and the Gentlemen of Philadelphia began a three-days' match today on the ground of the Union Cricket Club at Haverford. The wicket was in perfect condition and the weather clear and pleasant.

BASEBALL MAN DIES. NEW YORK, July 28.—H. R. Vanderhorst, secretary of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, died today from heart failure, due to aneurism of the aorta. He was born fifty-four years ago in Baltimore.

ILLEGAL DRINKS. NEW YORK, July 28.—Asbury Park hotel men and restaurant proprietors who were thought to maintain quiet little rooms where thirsty patrons could indulge in something stronger than beer, despite the prohibition law in the New Jersey resort, have been thrown into a state of consternation by the arrest yesterday of fourteen of their number. It was declared that forty a phonograph. The chief gazed blankly, from side to side, looking this way and that, and finally, in spite of rheumatic difficulties, rose to his feet, and stumbling to the table, gazed hard and long down the mouth of the trumpet, with the evident lively hope of seeing there his master's head. Not finding it, he turned away dazed, and said: "How can I speak? How can it know my language? Then he added, with the air of one who has solved all difficulties: "This is witchcraft."

Royal blood in Barotseland has to be accompanied by merit if it amounts to anything. Says Col. Harding: "To be a prince in Barotseland in no way assures a high social standing until the claim is won by some good work for the State, or by a high character, for sobriety, or marked talent of some kind."

A SOUTH AFRICAN KINGDOM. King Lewanika of Barotseland, in South Africa, made a voyage to England a few years ago in the company of Col. Colin Harding, the British government agent. He was much puzzled by the voyage. "How can we travel by night?" asked the king on one occasion. "There are no lights to steer by, so how can we keep in sight?" Again he asked: "What are those things above my head?" pointing to the life-belts in his cabin. When it was explained that the people put their stomachs down to move up and down, so I used you better than you use me."

In Barotseland Col. Harding one day delivered to a native chief a message which King Lewanika had talked into

JOHN CARBUTT HAS PASSED AWAY

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—John Carbutt, known to photographers the world over, died at his home today, aged seventy-four. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for more than a year. Mr. Carbutt came to this country from Sheffield in 1853. He was skilled as a chemist and made scientific photography his study. The American Association of Photographers chose him as their first president, and he acted as official photographer when the Canadian Pacific was constructed. He made several inventions, facilitating the taking of pictures in color. In 1875 he perfected his widely known Carbott dry plate, which revolutionized the trade.

Casey's departure will cause the following promotions in the post office: George Parker from city distributor to night mail clerk and Frank McAllister from senior substitute to city distributor.

RHEUMATISM
COMMON IN SUMMER

The time to get rid of Rheumatism is in summer while the blood is endeavoring to purge itself of all poisons and impurities, and the skin is active, with all the pores and glands open and able, in this way, to assist in the elimination.

Columbus, O., 1335 Mt. Vernon, Ave. Six years ago I had a severe attack of Rheumatism. The doctors told me I had no hope. They changed medicine every week and nothing they prescribed seemed to help. Finally I left off my medicine and began the use of S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my hands were so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. I was getting discouraged, you may be sure, when I began S. S. S., but as I felt it was helping me I continued it, and today I am a sound, well man and have never had a return of the disease.

The inactivity of the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels causes the poisons to remain in the system, which, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid to be absorbed by the blood and distributed to the different joints and muscles, producing the pains, inflammation and other distressing symptoms of Rheumatism. The wandering pains of the disease remind the sufferer that the poison is still in the blood and he should lose no time in getting it out. S. S. S. neutralizes the acid and makes the blood rich and pure. It tones up every organ and cures the disease permanently. S. S. S. contains no harmful minerals to disagreeably affect the system, but while curing the disease builds up every part of the body by its fine tonic effect. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.

ALAMEDA CITY POUND DISCUSSED

Fee System it is Claimed Has Caused
Many Animals to be Illegally Impounded.

ALAMEDA, July 28.—At the meeting last night of the West End Alameda Improvement Association, N. C. Hawks presiding in the absence of C. R. Smith, the subject of abuses permitted to exist in the management of the City Pound was discussed and the importance of their abatement urged.

Dog catchers operating on the fee system have ravaged the town, and in many well-authenticated instances have taken animals under age, carried off horses which should not have been impounded and abused women and children in the pursuit of the pittance extorted in fees.

George F. Weeks, editor of the Enquirer, introduced the following resolution, which was passed unanimously:

"Resolved, That in view of the many complaints made against the deputies of the Poundman in taking dogs that are under age, in capturing animals on barks, technicalities and in bringing general disrespect upon the good name of the city, that the West End Alameda Improvement Association heartily recommends to the City Trustees that they abolish the pound fee system entirely and pay one man a suitable salary, whose sole duty it shall be to see that the law is not violated, but who shall not take advantage of technicalities to annoy people who have not broken the spirit of the law."

Considerable discussion was aroused about a recent fire occurring at Fifth street station. The members of the association commended Chief Krauth for his excellent management of the fire.

Many of those present spoke of the delay of sending an alarm occasioned by the inmates of the burning house not being aware of the location of the nearest fire box. S. Green moved that the secretary of the association communicate with the Board of Trustees and ask them to have circulars printed giving the various alarm boxes in the city and the places at which the keys may be procured.

The association devoted some discussion to the fact that during the course of the fire the hose was detached from the hydrant on two occasions in order to allow time to pass. Some of the members were of the opinion that the trains should have been held up until the fire was extinguished. It was later shown to the disappointed ones that at the time the hose was disconnected the fire was under control.

INQUEST WILL BE HELD.
ALAMEDA, July 28.—The date of the inquest in the case of the capitalist, David Hirschfeld, has not been set as yet. The coroner's jury has been named as follows: W. Harbaugh, H. Walsh, George Caswell, C. Dittmar, John Thompson, George N. Clark, J. R. Renscher, E. Hally, F. N. Dodd, E. Ellis, P. P. Furey and H. C. Gallagher.

L. Sarnola King of 1800 Central avenue, who picked up the unfortunate man after he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, has been summoned as the principal witness. The local police have been working on the case in the hope of finding the boys who were stoning the Japanese servant of Hirschfeld, but they have not been able to secure their names.

WILL GO TO CHICAGO.
ALAMEDA, July 28.—Isadora Lermer, manager of the Park Theater, is to leave on Sunday for Chicago, where he is to act as general manager of an extensive circuit of playhouses. He will relinquish his position as manager of the Alameda playhouse, but his family will reside here.

POULTRY FANCIERS MEET.
ALAMEDA, July 28.—There was an interesting meeting of the Alameda County Poultry Association last evening in Linderman Hall. Superintendent E. K. Hensley gave a lecture on the care of fowls at moulting time. The members of the association are making preparations for their yearly display of poultry.

CAN'T GET TO STUDY JUSTICE MICROBES

Photographer Provision for New Says He Has Been Laboratory at Defrauded. University

BERKELEY, July 28.—J. T. Pollock, the Shattuck avenue photographer, returned from San Francisco yesterday afternoon with a heart full of rage and a poor opinion of the efficiency of the machinery of the law in that metropolis. Pollock is now of the conviction that there is no justice in California and technicalities of the law are serviceable only in assisting crooks in their nefarious work.

"The only way to have justice done and punishment meted out to swindlers and grafters in this State," said he this morning, "is to get a loaded gun and go out and use it."

"There is no justice in the courts. Within the past three months I have been swindled out of more than a thousand dollars and the men who robbed me have gone scott free because of technicalities in the law. The next time I am made a victim of robbers who hide behind the law I will be my own judge and will execute judgment with a vengeance."

The occasion of Pollock's visit to the courts was the trial of Charles Olsen for embezzlement and M. Darby for burglary. Olsen was a former partner of Pollock in the Pollock-Olsen Novelty Company. Pollock says that Olsen hired Darby to go to his place of business and steal the specialty company's outfit, valued at over $1000. Then Olsen disappeared. Pollock at once secured warrants against them, but both defendants were released yesterday and the cases dismissed.

"Judge Cabaniss said from the bench that there was no doubt but that Olsen had been robbed, but under the law Olsen could not be prosecuted because he was my partner. The papers dissolving the partnership had not been signed by Olsen before he carried away my property. He swindled me out of every cent I put into the company, and now I understand he has gone to San Jose with his friend Darby and will probably try to carry on the same confidence game there."

Pollock, however, is by no means done with Olsen. It is his intention to eventually bound his former partner to the courts. With this end in view he has sent out a circular letter to the police and manufacturers throughout the State, warning them against Olsen.

According to Pollock, it is the intention of Olsen to travel through the State, part of the State from San Jose to Los Angeles in company with Darby for the purpose of interesting mill owners and others in his pulley attachment invention through which he claims to have swindled Pollock. The latter declares that the invention is absolutely worthless and its sale is founded altogether on a mass of false statements. All these facts are contained in the warning that Pollock has sent broadcast through the mails. He is certain that Olsen will soon commit himself to such an extent that all the legal technicalities in Christendom will not save him.

SECRETARY DIES.

BOSTON, July 28.—Word has been received by cable of the death in Seoul, Korea, Wednesday, of Arthur S. Dixey, private secretary to United States Minister Morgan. He was graduated from Harvard with the class of 1902 and was a native of Boston.

BERKELEY, July 28.—A recent report of the California State Board of Health contains the official announcement of the opening of the State Hygienic Laboratory at the University of California. Provision was made at the latest meeting of the Legislature for the establishment of the adjunct of the State Board of Health and during the vacation the Bacteriological Laboratory was put in preparation for the experimental work. Besides Dr. Arduibald Ward, the head of the department, the Board of Health has appointed Dr. George Reinhardt and Miss Margaret Henderson to assist in the laboratory.

The report states that it is the intention of the State Board of Health to make this Hygienic Laboratory an active auxiliary to the universities in the State in their fight against disease.

The largest cities already have laboratories when tuberculosis, typhoid fever and other pathological products can be examined and much good result therefrom. This laboratory will do for the State what they do for the city. It will be open to any new or old California, who has only to send the specimen of diseased product to the laboratory, and will receive without charge, and as soon as possible the result of the examination. Should he require an answer by telegram or telephone, it will be necessary for him to pay the extra expense, as the State appropriation is too small to warrant much outlay in this direction. In conclusion, the report urges all health officers in the State to avail themselves of this opportunity for making an early diagnosis of doubtful cases, before there has been any amount of exposure.

BOWMAN & COMPANY

AN UGLY THREAT TOWN TRUSTEES IN SESSION

A TINSMITH ALARMED BY THE TREMBLING OF HIS LIMBS.

NO ACTION IS TAKEN AGAINST THE STONE COMPANY.

PANY.

It is a much easier task to meet the attack of an open enemy than to dwell in constant dread of an assault in the dark that is vaguely hinted at and may come at the first unguarded moment. Hint of possible nervous breakdown may well terrify any workman for his command over his nerves is a large part of his capital. Mr. William Browne, of No. 1019 Linden street, St. Joseph, Mo., is an expert tinner in the employ of the National Biscuit Company. He tells the following story of a trying experience:

"In the spring of 1902," he says, "I was regularly working at my trade. I grew somewhat careless in my habits of eating and drinking, and finally found that my appetite was fickle, a bad taste lingered in my mouth, my nerves twitched and were beyond my control, my kidneys were out of order and cold sweats would break out over my body at odd times. Perhaps, while I stood talking with some one, this trembling of the limbs, and profuse sweating, and a severe chill would seize me. I became alarmed at my condition and, having read an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I got a box and began to use them. They helped me at once. After I had used one box the twitching of the nerves, the trouble with the stomach and the cold sweats stopped and have not reappeared, and my appetite is good. I have told several friends that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all right and I recommend them to everybody."

Much has been said and written recently about medicines that contain alcohol, and while most of the criticism has been unnecessarily alarming, it is evident that a remedy in pill form is certain to be first from objection on this score. Furthermore, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are absolutely guaranteed to be entirely harmless to the most delicate constitution and may be taken with confidence. They have cured thousands of cases and if you will write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, New York, stating your trouble, you will receive a frank reply. If the pills will cure you, proof will be furnished. If it does not suit you, for your trouble, you will be honestly told so.

REDUCE EXPENSES

Board of Education has Cut Its Indebtedness.

BERKELEY, July 28.—The indebtedness of the Board of Education has been reduced by more than $5,000 during the fiscal year, 1904-05, despite the fact that the teachers' salaries were raised at the beginning of the year and many additional expenses incurred owing to the rapidly increasing population of this city. At this time last year the Board of Education was indebted for the fiscal year, 1904-05, despite the fact that the teachers' salaries were raised at the beginning of the year and many additional expenses incurred owing to the rapidly increasing population of this city. At this time last year the Board of Education was indebted for the fiscal year, 1904-05, despite the fact that the teachers' salaries were raised at the beginning of the year and many additional expenses incurred owing to the rapidly increasing population of this city.

The School Directors during the past year have been most economical in the expenditures of the school monies, as the Auditor's report shows. The absolutely necessary supplies and salaries have been curtailed where possible.

GRADUATES WILL GET POSITIONS

The Polytechnic Business College of this city, so well and favorably known throughout the West, has purchased Ayer's Business College, located at No. 723 Market street, San Francisco, and it is announced that the two schools will in future be conducted under the same management.

The history of the Oakland school is a story of the most wonderful success ever achieved by business institutions of the West. Their record of winning with their elegant equipment costing over $100,000, located at Twelfth and Harrison streets, is the best evidence of the success and high standing of this institution, which is one of the points of interest of the City of Oakland. It has been the policy of the management of this popular school to secure positions for their graduates and it is understood that in locating in San Francisco they desire to come in closer touch with the large business firms and commercial activities of that city where hundreds of their graduates are employed annually.

In connection with the Ayer's Business College an employment bureau will be conducted where graduates of these schools will be promoted into commercial positions as rapidly as they are qualified. This action in opening headquarters in San Francisco is considered a shrewd move on the part of the management, as it will bring to them even greater patronage than ever before, as they will be able to give their graduates choice of a position either in San Francisco or Oakland.

CYCLE ASSOCIATION.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The fourth annual meeting of the National Cycle Trade Association closed its three days' session here yesterday with the election of officers. E. J. Lloyd of Pittsburgh was chosen president. The new board of directors includes James Pintz, Newark, Ohio, and C. L. Elvey, Atlanta, Ga. A. M. Shaffer, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. This movement to obtain the co-operation of manufacturers and jobbers in automobile supplies, it was reported, had received considerable impetus.

Not one in twenty are free from some little ailment caused by friction of the bowels. Use Carter's Little Liver Pills. The result will be a pleasant surprise. They give positive relief.

A boon to travelers. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Cures dysentery, diarrhea, cholera, etc. Pleasant to take. Perfectly harmless.

ENGLAND'S PLANS FOR WARSHIPS

Naval Work is Discussed in House of Commons.

LONDON, July 28.—In the course of a discussion of the vote for naval work in the House of Commons today, Lieutenant Colonel Arthur Hamilton Lee, civil leader of the Admiralty said that the Admiralty had decided not to proceed with the Chatham dock yard extension, but instead to push work on the new base at Rosyth, Firth of Forth, Scotland.

The Chatham extensions he explained, in 1903 contemplated the expenditure of $22,500,000. Explaining the reasons for this step, Lieut. Col. Lee said there was a probability that warships in the future would be fewer in number and greater in individual power. Hence the berthing and docking space must be of the largest size.

The Admiralty had decided that Rosyth possesses greater strategic and other advantages than Chatham.

The civil lord of the Admiralty, probably mindful of the sensation caused in Germany by his speech at East Leigh in February last, added that he did not now wish to enlarge on the strategic advantages of a naval base on the east coast as it must be patent to everybody. The plans, he said had been prepared for a naval base of the most complete description, so that extensions could be carried out as required. The initial work would, complete in themselves, cost $12,500,000.

The cabinet, elder statesmen, and many officers of the army and navy were present. The party numbers 250. The lunch was served in a temporary pavilion which was almost covered with American and Japanese flags.

General Terauchi escorted Miss Alice Roosevelt and Madame Terauchi as escorted by Secretary Taft. President Roosevelt was toasted by General Terauchi, who also led the cheering for him. When Minister Glimson proposed the health of the "Emperor" of Japan, the Americans present arose and gave three huzzas, and three American cheers. General Terauchi proposed the health of Secretary Taft and Miss Alice Roosevelt.

Secretary Taft in toasting the Japanese army, dwelt chiefly on its record in the Chinese War and Boxer uprising, and on questions connected with its organization and leadership. He did not refer to the present war.

Both Minister Glimson and Secretary Taft heartily thanked the Japanese for their kindness. The Secretary eulogized Glimson's services as minister. Marquis Ito then chanted an original poem composed in honor of the visit of the Americans.

After the luncheon an hour was spent in viewing the extensive gardens.

BOYCOTT CONTINUES

SHANGHAI, July 28.—The boycott is continued with a bitter feeling on both sides, but the Chinese would probably welcome any reassuring indication from America enabling them to withdraw from their position gracefully.

WHY SPOUSE OF WEALTHY HAYWARDS BREWER WANTS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Caroline Palmatag has instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, Leopold Palmatag, a wealthy Haywards brewer, in which she alleges extreme cruelty and states that for five years her husband has never spoken to her, except at times when he used opprobrious epithets. She has also obtained a restraining order, by which her husband will not be allowed to dispose of any of their property until after the divorce proceedings have been settled.

Palmatag is in partnership with his wife's son, Charles Hayer, in conducting what is known as the Lyons Brewery at Haywards, valued at $500,000. Palmatag married Mrs. Hayer in 1875, she then having three sons, Charles, William and Julius. Julius has since died, but the other two are living. Charles being the Mayor of Haywards. MAKES A GREAT RECORD

DESERVED PRAISE GIVEN TO W. W. PIERCE IN THE EAST.

In the Quota Number N. C. R., published at Dayton, Ohio, on Wednesday, July 18, there appears the following article, accompanied by a photograph of the subject, in reference to W. W. Pierce, the father of Chief Deputy County Clerk George W. Pierce of this city:

"Flags are flying over the factory buildings in honor of Mr. W. W. Pierce, of California, one of the stalwarts of the American selling force, who has sold an average of one cash register a day for the last seven years—the best record ever made by anyone in the N. C. R. organization."

INVITED TO FACTORY.

"While the President and General Manager Chalmers were in California they attended a convention of the San Francisco organization. Mr. Pierce's record was brought to their attention, and the President at once invited him and Mrs. Pierce to visit the factory. They became the guests of the company when they left California and will be its guests until their return to San Francisco."

SPEAKS AT OFFICERS' CLUB.

"Mr. Pierce inspected the various departments yesterday and lunch at the Officers' Club, where he was introduced by Assistant General Manager Deed. He thanked the company for its thoughtfulness and said he would remain in the harness for several years yet. He expressed regret that he had never visited the factory before, but said he had thought himself too busy to leave the Pacific Coast."

"After a few days in Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will go East, possibly returning to the factory on their way home."

"His record for the last seven years—a machine a day for each working day—is wonderful. He has the congratulations of the entire organization and is being wished for many more successful years in the field."

GREAT FLEET IN NEW YORK HARBOR

NEW YORK, July 28.—The most powerful fleet of naval vessels gathered in New York Harbor is at anchor in two divisions, one lying stretched in a line in the Hudson River from Grant's tomb to Fifth street and the other to Tompkinsville in the lower bay. Sixty war ships, carrying 283 guns, are in New York waters.

The eight first class battle ships of the North Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, arrived in the harbor late this afternoon. The ships came singly and in pairs, intervals of an hour or more separating them. This was the result of a speed trial up the coast, which had been ordered by Admiral Evans as a test of the qualities of the different designs of battle-ships. A part of the fleet was made under natural draught, and then forced draught was resorted to. The Missouri finished far in front with her sister ship, the Maine, flying the flag of Admiral Evans, second.

The Kentucky led her sister ship, the Kearsarge and also beat the Illinois. The Iowa and Alabama brought up the rear of the contesting ships. The Massachusetts taking no part in the trial because of her greater age. It was said on board the Missouri tonight that the speed maintained by that ship for six hours will be close to the 18.22 knots recorded on the trial trip.

AUTO. ACCIDENT.

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—Two men in automobiles driving at least thirty miles an hour caused a serious runaway and painful injuries to two people, besides wrecking a buggy in front of a Long Beach car yesterday. Totally oblivious to the damage they had caused the men sped away in their cars, leaving the injured behind. Pedestrians and passengers on the car were indignant and if the culprits had been captured the crowd would have handled them roughly.

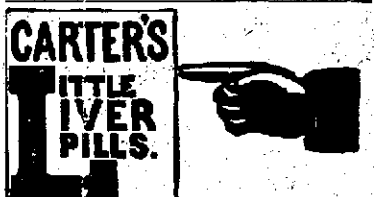

Miss Lillian M. Tobin and Miss Lillian Burns, both instructors in Chicago public schools, have been in Los Angeles only since Sunday and were out driving with Miss Burns' brother in a buggy. The vehicle was thrown squarely in front of a Long Beach car and before the motorman could stop Burns and Miss Tobin were thrown out. Miss Burns remained in the partly wrecked buggy, and hung to the reins while the frightened horse ran half a mile before it was checked. Miss Tobin had her right shoulder badly bruised and was severely cut under the chin. Burns was badly bruised and shaken.

A search of houses occupied by the Turks disclosed large quantities of revolvers, rifles, cartridges and compromising documents. The Roumanian officials subsequently discovered cases of rifles hidden in the hold of a Turkish steamer now at Kustentj.
